

A new .tel look for a new decade – Telnic launches template design contest

LONDON, United Kingdom – Thursday 27th January, 2011 –Today, Telnic (<http://telnic.tel>) the Registry Operator for the .tel top level domain (TLD), launched a contest for a new template design with the chance to win both a prize and potentially have the winning design added to the .tel template gallery.

“This contest is about finding a fantastic new design to match the great features and benefits that .tel is already delivering to owners in over 180 countries worldwide,” Nadya Morozova, Director of Community Outreach at Telnic. “We know that the .tel community has some great ideas so we’re really looking forward to seeing some outstanding submissions.”

The competition is being run through <http://99designs.com> and designers in the .tel community are encouraged to submit their entries. Designers can sign up for a free account. Designs following the contest brief should be submitted no later than 9th February, after which time Telnic will choose the winner or winners from the entries.

For more information about the contest design brief and how to enter the competition, please visit <http://telnic.org/design-competition.html>. The competition will be run in accordance with 99 Designs’ terms and conditions.

- ENDS -

About Telnic: <http://about.telnic.tel>

Media Contact: Justin Hayward, Telnic – <http://justin.tel>